Hi there.

I've been asked to look at a potential developing incident at Portree, where a Fish Farm barge has sunk as a result of Storm Arwen. Can I ask you to confirm if you are aware of any shellfish beds/harvesting in the immediate vicinity that could be affected? There doesn't seem to have been any fuel or other contaminants at this time but there may still be some plastic detritus from the vessel in the surrounding water.

Co-ordinates given as C. 57 25.077N 006 09.309W ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF PORTREE HARBOUR

Kind Regards,
